Local Intelligence.

Mr. G. A. Beeman, editor of that sterling Democratic paper, the Comanche Chief, called last night. He is on his way to Houston to attend the Grand Lodge, being Master of Comanche Lodge, No. 216. He promises to stay several days on his return, when no doubt our merchants will cultivate business relations with him.

Several pretty young ladies in town from a distance.

Eleven prisoners will be sent forward to the penitentiary this morning.

The way the little bills fluttered about yesterday, was a caution to delinquents.

Extensive preparations going on in the city schools for the Commencement exercises this month.

Baxter, the indefatigable Express man, has our thanks for a file of late New Orleans papers.

Waco Lodge, No. 92, A. F. & A. M., meets for work, to-night by order.

S. B. Tait, W. M.

The work on commenced yesterday to remove the old Court House. The work of demolition progresses satisfactorily.

Prof. Krause, of the Waco Nurseries, reports prospects fine for grapes. Flowers and other fruits not doing so well for lack of rain.

The weather was very warm yesterday, notwithstanding there was a considerable breeze blowing. The mercury was at 88° at 4 p. m.

The various places of worship were well attended Sunday. The lecture of Mr. Baker of Mobile, to the Sunday-school in the Methodist chapel, was an interesting feature of the day's religious observances.

The permanent organization of the fair association will take place on the 16th. Let there be a strong corps of officers chosen. Old McLennan can't afford to make a mistake now in this matter.

We notice, with pleasure, a marked improvement in the Methodist choir recently—speaking with reference to the singing, of course, there being no room for improvement in other respects.

FOUND.

At the Third Street Methodist Church, Sunday afternoon, a lady's dainty kid glove, load colored, No. 7, which may be had at this office for a sight of the owner.

Our date line shows a mistake. It should read June 24, instead of the 5th. These things will happen in the best regulated families. We are confident no serious result will follow, but we look for the card nevertheless.

We conversed with a Corryville farmer who states that the prospect for a large crop is exceedingly good. What the wheat crop lacked in being a full one will be amply made up by the corn and cotton.

PERSONAL.—W. H. Belcher and J. R. Saunders, of Gatesville, were in the city yesterday on their way to attend the session of the Grand Lodge (Masonic) which meets in Houston Wednesday.

Prof. Park, correspondent of the Jefferson Democrat, called yesterday. He is just returning home from a trip to the Western part of the State.

The following gentlemen leave this morning to attend the Grand Lodge, which convenes Wednesday: S. B. Trice, D. R. Gurley, J. A. Haynie, Dr. W. H. Wilkes, Dr. Joe S. Willes, Sam P. Wright, R. E. Burnham and B. F. Richey.

Our new gas lamp is the envy of the entire office. It is really a splendid affair, and the public spirited gentleman who placed it upon our table, has the thanks of the poor over-worked compositor who strain their eyes over the hitherto miserable scrawl furnished them as copy. Many thanks, Judge, and may your pathway through life, ever be as bright as is our editorial desk, since the new lamp illustrates it.

PERSONAL.—We acknowledge the pleasure of a call from that gentleman, A. M. Johnson, of Dallas, Manager of the Texas Department of the Mobile Life Insurance Company. In its able and conscientious manager, no less than by its high standing and liberal terms this company is abundantly commended to the people of our State. Mr. W. L. Parker, of Mobile, leaves on the train this morning homeward bound.

The Waco Produce Company.

The company met yesterday and was organized. It consists of Col. Jno. T. Flint, U. T. Chamberlain, George B. Campbell, R. G. Piddock, and John W. Mann. Their charter was granted on the 26th of May. They have bought six lots immediately on the railroad in East Waco, upon which they will at once commence the erection of the necessary buildings and machinery. They propose to receive store and forward agricultural products of every kind, goods and merchandise. They propose to receive store and ship grain, and for this purpose will erect an elevator. They propose to compress cotton. They also propose to put in operation extensive flouring mills, gins and oil cake mills. They will advance on consignments of grain, cotton and other produce.

In carrying out the purposes of the corporation, very extensive buildings will be necessary and the most costly and valuable machinery, and a large amount will be used.

This is perhaps one of the most important enterprises ever entered upon by our city, and must when in successful operation concentrate at this point an immense produce business. The men who have undertaken the matter, are not given to failure, and with capital sufficient, and boundless energy and vim, we look to see this company succeed, even beyond their own expectations. This is the kind of spirit and enterprise that is to make our city, in the future, equal, if not surpassing any other town in the state. The true interests of Waco are comprised in this and similar manufacturing industries. We have a magnificent factory to work out. It remains to be seen if we are equal to the task. Here is the most promising field in the state, and in the Southwest for the employment of capital in enterprises of this nature, as well as regular manufacturing business. This, we hope, is but the precursor of a splendid hundred thousand and a half cotton mill. How is it, gentlemen, are we right?

We refer to the advertisement of The Mobile Life Insurance Company, in today's issue. This company has become a solid institution of the South. Its growth and prosperity has been unparalleled. In less than three years it has issued over three thousand policies. Its Texas business under the management of a corps of efficient agents, has been large and promises increased results the coming year. The solvency of the company is evidenced by the celebrated actuary Shepherd Homan, who has recently examined its affairs, and expressed his satisfaction in the most complimentary terms. W. L. Baker, of the firm of Baker, Lawler & Co., Mobile, the President of the Company, is now on a visit to our State in its interests. He has been in our city several days, and expresses himself much pleased with Texas and in high spirits regarding the future success of his company. He is the son of the late Col. B. A. Baker, of Alabama, long and favorably known to many of our citizens, as a man of integrity, business character and energy. His mantle seems to have fallen on his son, who manifests the same characteristics, not only in commercial life, but in the administration of his duties as President of the Mobile Life Insurance Company.

Mr. W. A. Peters, of Westfalls, informs us that there is a strong disposition in his portion of Falls county to trade and ship at Waco. Most of this business has heretofore gone to Marlin; and our good friends of that place have counted on getting it all, upon the completion of the bridge at Stuart's ferry, on the Brazos. But now, it appears that the Westfalls farmers and merchants are dissatisfied with the rates of toll. They say, moreover, that the accommodations for wagoners are very much cheaper and better at Waco than at Marlin; the market, they think, is better, and, as a consequence, there is a strong general disposition in favor of Waco. All that is requisite to secure this very desirable acquisition to the commerce of our city, Mr. Peters says, is for Waco to aid in the construction of a good wagon road from Mooreville to the village of Westfalls, a distance of only ten or twelve miles.

We throw out the suggestion as it comes from Mr. Peters, believing with him that it is a good opportunity for Waco to put another feather in her cap.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES OF WACO HIGH SCHOOL.—This flourishing school, under the supervision of Messrs. Madden and Rechey, of this city, closed its last session on Friday, the 27th of May, by examinations in the various classes and exercises in declamation.

The following young gentlemen received the honors of the school: Master Edgar Battle received the prize for the best speaker in the first class. In the second class Master George Miller and Master Willie Fort received the prize, both being equal in the contest.

In the first class in declamation Master Eddie Blocker triumphantly bore off the palm, and in the second Master George Miller.

The boys acquitted themselves like men, and reflected great credit upon their able and efficient teachers.

After the regular exercises were over, Dr. McGregor, Rev. H. L. Taylor and Mr. W. L. Taylor each made a few appropriate and well timed remarks.

The Third Street Methodist Sunday School with a number of visiting friends, was highly entertained at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with an address by W. L. Baker, President of the Mobile Life Insurance Company now on a brief visit to this city. Though not a lawyer or a preacher nor in any way accustomed to public speaking, as he remarked in the outset, Mr. Baker is certainly a man of very extraordinary power in that line, whatever may be his forte, judging from his effort Sunday afternoon. The children were fairly apt bound from dress to last and older persons seemed to enjoy it sorely less. Indeed, though eminently a success in life insurance, we are led to more than half suspect that he has missed his calling after all. Surely such talents of oratory may not be buried with impunity.

LUCKETT'S LINIMENT—LIVING WITH NERVES.

BLUE RIDGE, Falls County Texas, August 15, 1873.

Mr. S. M. Lockett:

DEAR SIR—I have been sorely afflicted with Rheumatism for several years, so much so that at times I have not been able to walk without the greatest pain for two and three months together. I have tried every remedy, but have never experienced any relief until I was induced to try "Lockett's Liniment." After using three bottles I find myself entirely well, and I cheerfully give this to the public, hoping that others may see this and profit by my experience, and speedily seek relief in this truly wonderful medicine.

A MONUMENT.

As big as the grand Pyramid might be built of the teeth that have been ruined by neglect. Shall this thing go in the face of the great fact that SOZODONT is a certain preservative of dental decay?

IMPORTANT TO THE SENSITIVE.—Persons with active brains and of a delicate organization should never be subjected to violent purgation or any other treatment calculated to prostrate them. Leeching, cupping, starving and intestinal rasping, are of doubtful expediency in any case, but they are almost certain death to the sensitive and fragile. What such persons need is stimulation, and the very best stimulant they can take is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. To give depelling medicines to the nervous, the debilitated, the infirm, the emaciated, the desponding, is like firing broadsides into a sinking ship. Thousands of dyspeptics are killed every year by medicines that sap the physical and constitutional stamina which, if reinforced by that powerful vegetable tonic, would soon prove an overmatch for the disease. It is true that the bowels require to be relieved and regulated, and the liver controlled, as well as the stomach to be toned and the system strengthened, and let it be borne in mind that the Bitters accomplish these objects gently and surely.

Sins of Mother and Father!

THIS is a sin to hoard up money and refuse to supply the natural wants and demands of a suffering, bed-ridden wife. This is a sin for a mother to bend over a couch of a beautiful, yet fading daughter, and refuse to send a few dollars for her benefit and relief. How many thousands of mothers and fathers are to-day cursed with the above sin? Sickly, pale, emaciated, care-worn, suffering females can be found in all parts of our country. A remedy can be had, and yet they refuse to spend a little for it. The remedy that will cure is Dr. Dromgole's English Females Bitters. Sold by druggists.
